Medical Assisting

Updated national exam eligibility testing for Certified Medical Assistant (CMA) to exclude the Spokane online program (Catalog p. 80, rev. December 24, 2021).

The program culminates in a Certificate of Achievement. An Associate of Science degree in Medical Assisting is available online to California residents. Carrington College prepares students to take appropriate certification and licensure exams related to their individual majors. The College does not guarantee students will successfully pass these exams or be certified or licensed as a result of completing the program. Graduates of the Medical Assisting program at all locations including online are eligible to sit for the National Healthcareer Association Clinical Medical Assistant Certificate (CCMA) exam. Graduates at all locations except Albuquerque and online are eligible to sit for the national certification exam to attain the Registered Medical Assistant (RMA) credential. Graduates of the program at the Boise, Mesa, Phoenix, Glendale Learning Center, Portland, Spokane (except online), Tucson, and the graduates of the California campuses (except online) are eligible to sit for the national exam to attain the Certified Medical Assistant (CMA) credential. Credential preparation varies by location.

Updated campuses offering the online program to include Spokane (Catalog p. 83, rev. December 24, 2021).

Complaint and Grievance Procedures

Updated the address of the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, Western Association of Schools and Colleges (ACCJC/WASC) (Catalog p. 260 and 261, rev. December 24, 2021).

For comprehensive information regarding academic grade appeals, please see the section titled Grade Appeals in the student handbook. Academic complaints should first be addressed to the faculty. Academic problems remaining unresolved should start with the Program Director or Dean of Nursing. If the student is not satisfied with these efforts, the student may pursue a formal review by submitting a formal complaint. Non-academic complaints should also follow the student complaint procedures listed below. For comprehensive information regarding the formal complaint process, please see the section titled Complaint and Grievance Procedures in the student handbook.

1. Submit a signed, written complaint to the Campus Director or the Campus Director's designee, who will serve as the impartial representative of the institution, describing the basis of the complaint in sufficient detail to allow the Campus Director or designee to begin an investigation.
2. The Campus Director or designee will confirm completion of the investigation

- with a written report mailed to the student within ten working days of receipt of the complaint.
3. If the student is not satisfied with the disposition of the complaint, the student may appeal in writing to the VP of Operations within ten working days of receipt. The appeal letter must include a copy of the written disposition and an explanation of why the student is not satisfied with that outcome.
 4. The VP of Operations will review the report and the student's appeal and conduct any further investigation necessary, including requesting additional information from the student, Campus Director, or designee.
 5. The VP of Operations will provide the student a written appeal finding, which will be sent within ten working days of receipt of the appeal letter. This written decision is the final disposition of the complaint.

Students will not be subject to adverse action as a result of filing a complaint or initiating the grievance process.

Students not satisfied with the final disposition of the grievance may contact the Manager, Student Affairs at studentaffairs@carrington.edu (who serves as an impartial Carrington representative), the state licensing authority, the College's accreditor, the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, Western Association of Schools and Colleges (ACCJC/WASC), 331 J Street, Suite 200, Sacramento, CA 95814, 415 506 0234 or the state attorney general. A complete listing of contact information for state licensing authorities and the state attorney general offices is located at <https://carrington.edu/student-consumer-info/>.
